

I am very concerned if the Phone Privacy Law is changed, my family and I will be agained bothered by unwanted sales calls. My family and I have little time in the evenings to share time, must we be bothered by unwanted sales calls every night of the week? Please let us keep the little bit of time we have together peaceful.